Practical Guideline 2.1

The Company determines the objective which is "Leading the organization to sustainably develop and growth" and set the main target which is the target set for 3 years that "maintaining the growth of sales volume and profit from the operation in furniture business group for continuous growth, aims to be the organization that develops the investment to reduce costs in the integrated furniture manufacturing business, and sets the target on the returns from alternative energy business in the proportion for not below 30% of total net profit of the Company and its subsidiaries within 3 years, as well as diversifies the risk of business operation to other types of businesses that have potential and opportunities in continuous growth". It can be seen that the objective and main target of the business are for sustainability, focusing on creating value for the business which will create the mutual benefits both for customers who will have the opportunity to use products with developed styles, have guidelines to reduce costs in order to sell products at a reasonable price, stakeholders have the opportunity to benefit from the approach of expanding the Company's business to upstream businesses for production cost reduction, such as suppliers, suppliers of raw materials, financial institutions supporting finance to the Company as well as the renewable energy business that will benefit and be a part of creating energy security in society and communities where the Company has the opportunity to invest in such areas.

The Company encourages personnel at all levels to participate in the presentation and decides to set working guidelines that help promote the Company's objective and main target to create a corporate culture that everyone must be aware of using creativity in work.

Practical Principle 2.2

The Board of Directors should supervise to ensure that the objective and target as well as strategies in a medium term and / or annual basis of the business corresponds to the achievement of the Company's objective and main target by appropriately and safely applying innovation and technologies.

Practical Guideline 2.2

The Board of Directors will oversee the preparation of strategies and annual plans in line with the Company's objective and main target by taking into account the environment of the business at that time, including forecasting factors that may be changing and the future potential risks. In every meeting of the Board of Directors, the operational progress will be inquired by Managing Director and related executives to review the objective, target and strategies to ensure that the strategies and working plans take into account the impact on the time that may occur and can be predicted. In addition, it also includes overseeing the analysis of the environment, factors and risks that may affect relevant stakeholders throughout the lines which the stakeholders are herein covered, employees, investors, shareholders, customers, partners, communities, society, environment, government agencies regulatory agencies, etc. Moreover, the Board of Directors is also aware of the risk of setting target that may lead to illegal conduct or lack of ethics, it is the main issue that will be discussed about the risk of the target when considering along with various environmental factors that may facilitate such risks.

The Board of Directors will supervise the transfer of objective and target through strategies and plans across the organization to enable all relevant departments to be informed and able to plan the operational methods that conform to and meet the needs of the organization.

The creation of channels for participation or communication channels between stakeholders and business, the Company has prepared information to promote the contact of the investor relations department or the Contact Us channel via website. www.eastcoast.co.th, the Company's main website so that the Company can access and receive information on issues or needs of each group of stakeholders. In the past, the Investor Relations Department will be contacted via the direct telephone line at the most, partly acknowledging certain issues and expectations from stakeholders, some issues that have been acknowledged can be presented to the executive level for analysis and further enhancing the value creation with stakeholders to achieve results. including sending inquiries or complaints through the website which will be directly sent to the email address of assigned person for acknowledgement of inquiries and complaints, the Company has a policy to oversee for opening more communication channels between stakeholders and the business. The company has a policy to supervise more opportunities for communication channels between stakeholders and the Company.

The Board of Directors recognizes the proper and safe use of innovations and technologies to promote the achievement of the Company's objective and main target by dividing based on business type, both main business and under investment business. The furniture business which is the Company's main business has been continuously sought for ways to increase efficiency and reduce production costs by applying modern machinery technology in the production process with the objective to continuously decrease the number of workers in production lines, continuously reduce costs, to prevent labor shortage for future risk prevention, and to supervise the production in accordance with the styles of furniture that will be changed in accordance with the market demand. For renewable energy business that the Company has invested in solar power plants, the Company has paid attention to the selection of appropriate and modern technology, and could generate good return on investment in the power plant business in a long run in line with the term of the power purchase agreement to be obtained in each project.

Practical Principle 3: Strengthen the Board of Directors.

Practical Principle 3.1

The Board of Directors should be responsible for determining and reviewing the Board's structure, in terms of size, composition, proportion of independent directors to be appropriate and necessary to lead the organization to achieve the specified objective and target.

Practical Guideline 3.1

The Company has set the policy, composition and structure of the Board to be composed of directors with various qualifications in terms of skills, experience, specific competencies that are beneficial to the Company, gender, age and at least one non-executive director who has experience in the main business or industry that the Company is operating. The current Board of Directors has the appropriate size and consists of knowledgeable persons with sufficient ability and experience to effectively perform duties with not less than 5 persons and not over 12 people. In addition, the Board of Directors also consists of independent directors who are able to freely give opinions on the work of the management the regulation prescribed by the SEC requires at least one-third of total directors are independent directors, but not less than 3 independent directors.

At present, the Company has a total of 8 directors, divided into 5 independent directors and 3 members who are executive directors and/or shareholders.

The Company has the number of independent directors with qualifications in accordance with the regulations of the SEC and the Stock Exchange of Thailand and the independent directors can jointly work with all members of the Board of Directors with efficiency and can freely express their opinions.

The Company has disclosed the policy in determining the Board of Directors' composition and structure with a variety of members, directors' data such as age, gender, educational background, experience, shareholding proportion, number of years as a director and holding directorship in other listed companies and gain & loss, conflict of interest in the Annual Report, meeting invitation letter for supporting the consideration and decision of the Company's shareholders and website.

Practical Principle 3.2

The Board of Directors should select the appropriate person as the Chairman of the Board and ensure that the composition and operation of the Board facilitate the use of discretion in freely making decisions.

Practical Guideline 3.2

At present, the Chairman of the Board is General Terdsak Marom who is an independent director and the person who is suitable for the position of Chairman of the Board and not the same person as Managing Director who is responsible for the implementation of the policy. The Company is confident that the composition and operation of the Board facilitate the independent judgment in making decisions. Please refer to the details of the scope of authorities, duties and responsibilities of the Chairman as detailed in the topic Practical Principle 1.1, the Chairman of the Board plays a leading role for the Board of Directors.

The principle that should be followed is the majority members of the Board should be non-executive directors who can freely give opinions on the work of the management because the current structure of the Board of Directors consists of 8 members in total including 5 independent directors who are non-executive, and executive directors, including 3 shareholders of the Company, which, based on the said structure of the Board, are considered that the Company has the number of independent directors more than the number of executive directors in accordance with the principles of good corporate governance.

The Board of Directors has established the policy for the Audit Committee, independent directors to hold their office for not more than 9 years from the date of being appointed for the first time according to the structure of the Company's Board of Directors. However, the appointment may be continued in accordance with the agenda approved by the Board of Directors, but this will not be automatically renewed the office, that is, the Board of Directors will significantly consider the performance of the Audit Committee/ independent directors, benefits to the Company, skills, knowledge, competencies, experience, including the protection of the interests of the Company.

The Board of Directors sets the policy for independent directors to hold the office for a period of not over 9 years from the first tenure as independent director. However, in the event that the Company will appoint an independent director to continue his/her term, the Board of Directors will reasonably consider the necessity, such as comparing the valuable knowledge, ability and experience that each person has and is ready to apply for the Company's benefits.

Prior to considering important matters, the Board of Directors may consider to appoint the Sub-committees to consider and screen information on specific issues and propose guidelines for consideration before proposing to the Board of Directors for further approval, such as the important policy to set guidelines for managing specific risks will be considered and screened by the Risk Management Committee, etc.

The Board of Directors oversees the disclosure of roles and duties of the Board of Directors and Sub-committees, the number of meetings and the number of meeting attendances by each director in previous year; and reports the performance of all Sub-committees in the Annual Report.

In addition, in approving, endorsing or giving opinions on the meeting agenda, the Board of Directors has set a policy regarding the minimum number of quorum when the Board of Directors will vote at the Board's meeting that at least two-third of total directors must attend.

The Board of Directors should supervise the recruitment and selection of directors to have a transparent and clear process in order to have the Board of Directors consisting of members with qualifications consistent with the specified elements.

Each year, the Nomination Committee will be responsible for selecting directors by following the criteria for selecting new directors. Prior to proposing name list to the meeting of Board of Directors, the Nomination Committee will give opinions, the proposed candidates must be fully qualified according to the Public Limited Companies Act, B.E 2535 (1992), the Notifications of the Securities and Exchange Commission, Capital Market Supervisory Board and relevant Notifications of the Stock Exchange of Thailand, as well as have good knowledge, ability, dedication and experience in the management of the core business and other businesses invested by the Company. In addition, in recruiting directors, the process must be proceeded in accordance with the Company's business strategy as well, for example, the Company has increased its investment in energy business, the Nomination Committee therefore considered to select new directors with qualifications and experience, knowledge and expertise in energy to enhance overall potential of the Board of Directors. Additionally, based on the necessity of funding sources to be used for further investment in the energy business, and other businesses that may occur in the future, the Nomination Committee has considered and nominated independent directors with knowledge, competence, skills and experience in the businesses of finance and investment to strengthen the structure of the Board of Directors in previous year.

The Company has a policy to determine the composition of the Board by using tools and table to consider the components of directors' knowledge and competency (Board Competency Matrix) to be used for supporting the consideration on the analysis of necessary skills to be applied in the nomination of the Company's directors, dividing into 3 main topics for consideration, such as the knowledge about the industry and experience related to the Company's business operations; skills and experience in many areas, i.e. accounting, finance, law, etc.; and behavioral abilities, i.e. teamwork, coordination, courage, etc. If considering from such Matrix, the elements of each director will be considered whether the candidate's qualification can fulfill the Board of Directors' overview, the Nomination Committee will consider whether the composition of the Board is appropriate and covers sufficient knowledge, experience, ability and skills, that will be beneficial and efficient for the Board of Directors' operations.

The Company will disclose directors' information such as age, gender, educational background, experience, shareholding proportion, number of years as a director and holding directorship in other listed companies in the Company's Annual Report and website.

Before considering the selection by the Nomination Committee, each year, the Company will announce and invite the shareholders who wish to nominate the person who is deemed appropriate to be considered and selected as the Company's directors by posting the announcement on the Company's website. In the process of appointing new directors, the Nomination Committee will propose name list and comments to the Board of Directors prior to proposing to the shareholders' meeting for appointing directors. The Company has disclosed adequate information of persons who has been nominated for the decision making according to the criteria specified and the Corporate Governance Code. The Company was rated on the quality assessment of the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders for 2018, 2019, and 2020 with scores of 100, 98 (The cause is that some directors were on urgent duty on the shareholders' meeting day, resulting in failure to achieve the minimum number of directors as required) and 100 points, respectively, which is the evaluation on the quality of the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders, organized by Thai Investors Association.

The composition of the Nomination Committee as specified in the Charter of the Nomination Committee shall consist of at least 3 directors and at least one of them is an independent director, the Chairman of the Nomination Committee must be an independent director, and the Nomination Committee will review the nomination criteria and procedures for directors and propose to the Board of Directors prior to nominating new directors to replace directors who will be retired by rotation. In case of nominating same director, he/she will be considered of his/her dedication for the Company's benefits over the past period as well as the performance of the said director. Therefore, the Company believes that the nomination and selection of directors adequately has a transparent and clear process.

Practical Principle 3.4

In proposing the remuneration for directors to shareholders for approval, the Board of Directors should consider the remuneration structure and rates that are appropriate to the responsibilities and motivate the Board to lead the organization to achieve both short-term and long-term targets.

The Company has established the Remuneration Committee for consider the remuneration criteria and procedures, the Remuneration Committee will propose the remuneration based on the Company's annual business performance in previous year, the performance and responsibility of directors, consideration of the number of subsidiaries, joint ventures that increase according to the business structure, benefits that the Company receives from performing the duties by directors. The initial remuneration data will be compared to the survey data of directors and executives in the listed companies related to directors' remuneration which are classified by business category - Market for Alternative Investment (mai), divided by revenue size of the companies and divided by the net profit (loss) of the company, annually prepared by Research Department, Thai Institution of Directors in order to ensure that the remuneration structure and rates are appropriate to the increased obligations and responsibilities and can motivate directors to lead the organization to achieve the planned targets.

The composition of the Remuneration Committee as specified in the Charter of the Remuneration Committee must consist of at least 3 directors and at least 1 of them is an independent director; the Chairman of the Remuneration Committee should be an independent director.

The Remuneration Committee will propose details of the remuneration structure and rates for directors, in the forms of monetary and non-monetary, to the Board of Directors, prior to propose the shareholders' meeting for the consideration and approval of the annual remuneration for directors.

The Company has disclosed the policy and criteria for determining remuneration for directors, both form and amount of remuneration, both received from the Company and its subsidiaries (if any) in the Annual Report

In terms of policies and forms of remuneration for top executives, the Remuneration Committee will consider the remuneration of management with a policy to determine remuneration based on the Company's performance both short-term and long-term, individual performance by Key Performance Indicator on finance, business growth rate, operating income, net profit from operations, work process development indicators, Risk management, personnel development and according to the scope of responsibilities of the position as well as the Company's competitiveness.

Practical Principle 3.5

The Board of Directors should supervise all directors to be responsible in their duties and sufficiently allocate their time.

Practical Guideline 3.5

The Board of Directors recognizes the importance of creating mechanisms to encourage directors to understand their roles and duties. The new directors who have been in the Company for the first time will be provided of orientation by presenting the Company's information such as knowledge the current Board's structure, shareholder's structure, organizational structure, nature of business, information on past business performance, targets and objectives of the business operations specified in the plan rules, the Company's regulations, including relevant regulators, preparation of stake holding report, corporate governance policy, policy against the use of insider information, etc., to new directors for knowing the important details of the Company. Additionally directors will attend the Director Accreditation Program (DAP) organized by the Thai Institute of Directors Association as required by the SEC that the directors of listed companies are required to be trained of this program.

In performing duties as the Company's director, the Company has set the criteria for holding positions in other companies for the Company's directors to ensure that directors can devote sufficient time to perform duties for the Company. However, the Company's directors should hold directorship in 5 listed companies or less as maximum. However, the Company will consider the benefits from the duties, providing advices that is beneficial to the business operations in accordance with the Company's Corporate Governance Code as main factor.

The Company has disclosed information regarding the appointment of directors in other companies, the number of meeting attendance of the Board of Directors that has been held all the year in the Annual Report which requires that each director should attend at least 75% of the total number of meetings. At present, the Company has not found cases that the Company's director or executive holds directorship or executive position or is a direct or indirect stakeholder in any other business that has a conflict with the Company.
